SUPPLY AGREEMENT: it refers to all clauses needed to manage the purchasing agreement based on the kind of supply.

* * *

1) GENERALITY

- 1.1. The supply is subject to the acceptance of the GENERAL SALE CONDITIONS published on our website: www.oegsrl.it and mentioned in the Application Form, that must be returned from the Buyer subscribed for acceptance, possibly with digital signature.
- 1.2. In case of missing return of the Application Form duly signed (mentioned at point 1.1), the Seller will have the opportunity to consider the order cancelled. However the execution of the Contract will be considered as tacit acceptance of the GENERAL SALE CONDITIONS (unless the Buyer has not expressly objected the contests in writing, prior to the execution of the order).
- 1.3. Any condition contained in the order that modifies, contrasts or contradicts the General Sale Conditions will be considered invalid and not applicable, unless the Conditions provide differently. The Seller does not accept verbal agreements or commitments of its employees or representatives: any exceptions to these Conditions must be in writing.
- 1.4. The Seller reserves the unquestionable right to modify, at any time, the Conditions giving express notice to Customers. The order is intended as an irrevocable proposal of purchase, while it must be accepted by the Seller only after the order's confirmation or its execution.

2) ORDER'S PROCEDURES

- 2.1. All orders must be submitted in writing and have to be complete in each part necessary for a correct identification of required products and services. The Seller will not accept telephone or verbal orders.
- 2.2. The Buyer may request the cancellation or modification of the order, only before its execution, by written communication.
- 2.3. The Seller has the right not to accept cancellations or modifications of the order in relation to the progress of the contract. Modifications and cancellations have to be expressly accepted by the Seller to be valid.

3) PRICES AND PAYMENT CONDITIONS

- 3.1. Offers of the Seller, unless expressly written derogation included in them, have a maximum validity of 30 days from their issues. Upon expiry of the term, offers will automatically expire.
- 3.2. Prices shown in the price-lists and publications are information with no binding value and cannot be considered as an "Offer to the Public". All prices are quoted net of VAT. The Seller has the right to make changes to the price-lists without any prior notice, giving express notice to Customers. Prices confirmed in the order will be those in force after the acceptance of the Order or those agreed in specific Supply Contracts.
- 3.3. Payments must be effected within agreed terms, even in case of delay in delivery or total/partial loss of ordered goods not attributable to the Seller. In case of deferred payments, the missing payment of a single maturity involves the chargeability of the balance of other deadlines, on the grounds of the article 1186 of the Italian Civil Code.
- 3.4. In case of delay to the agreed payment terms, the Seller will automatically apply commercial interests on the grounds and for the effects of the Italian law 231/2002.
- 3.5. In case of delay in payments by the Buyer, high exposure, or decrease in reliance (insolvency risk), the Seller will have the right to:
- demand payment in advance or on delivery, or the presentation of appropriate guarantees;
 - suspend, in whole or in part, the execution of pending orders;
 - withdraw agreed payment's term, requesting immediately pending payments of the Buyer.

4) DELIVERY

- 4.1. The delivery date starts from the day of order's acceptance by the Seller.
- 4.2. The Seller is not responsible for any delay in delivery in case of:
- force majeure or contingencies outstanding, shortage of raw materials, restriction of energy sources;
 - delays depending on the Buyer, in particular for non or late communication of the essential data for the execution of the order;
 - non-observance of payment's term, on the grounds of the article 1460 and 1461 of the Italian Civic Code.
- 4.3. Delays attributable to the Seller may give rise to any compensation, solely in the Supply Contracts where both parties have expressly agreed penalties, and in any case up to a maximum amount equal to the value of the supply.
- 4.4. The Buyer must take delivery of the goods even in case of partial deliveries or subsequent to the agreed date. The Buyer will bear all costs generated by the non-collection of the goods.
- 4.5. In case of modification to the order, which have been agreed to both parties on the grounds of these Sale Conditions, the delivery date will be automatically extended by the time necessary for the execution of the modified order.

5) RESPONSIBILITIES AND REPORTING OF DEFECTS

- 5.1. Unless otherwise agreed in writing between the parties, the goods will be consigned EXWAREHOUSE of the Seller. The Seller, on the grounds of the article 1510 - paragraph 2 - of the Italian Civil Code, is freed from the obligation of the delivery with the consignment of the goods to the carrier, therefore the risk relating to the transport is borne by the Buyer. In the case of a return, carriage paid, expressly agreed between the parties, shall be the responsibility of the Seller to choose a carrier of its confidence.
- 5.2. Once receipt of the goods, the Buyer is required to verify the quality/quantity as per the order. In case of anomalies/defects found on receipt of the goods, the Buyer may not accept the consignment and immediately communicate to the Seller the reasons for the refusal.
- 5.3. The Buyer must in any case communicate in writing, within 8 (eight) days, non-conformities and defects of the goods. In case of hidden defects, the period mentioned above shall start from the discovery of the defect, as long as the reporting takes place (under penalty of forfeiture), within a maximum of one (1) year from the delivery. The complaint must be made in writing and addressed to the Seller by registered mail. The complaint must indicate all necessary data regarding the consignment: order's no., delivery- note no., invoice no., etc.
- 5.4. The Seller, at its sole discretion and in relation to the state and the type of goods, will be able to:
- supply the missing goods in case of mistake of quantity;
 - repair/replace spoiled goods;
